

Trinity Princeton

A delicious Thanksgiving feast will be provided by various restaurants owned by the

Princeton, N.J.

Please Join Us for Dinner & Conversation

Friday, November 17, 2017 / 6:30 pm

Trinity Church, Princeton

Dinner and Compelling Conversation on:

Incarceration: Education, Re-Entry, and Employment
With Special Guests: Kalief Bethea, Dameon Stackhouse, and Tracey Syphax, Author, Community Activist, Entrepreneur

6:30 p.m. – Guest seated – Table cards with conversation starter tips

6:50 p.m. - Part I: Jill Knapp, Professor Emeritus, Astrophysical Sciences, Princeton, Co-founder of Prison Teaching Initiatives, www.prisonteachinginitiatives.org to teach mathematics to inmates in NJ prisons. Mr. Stackhouse and Mr. Bethea, beneficiaries of the program will share their stories

7:10 p.m. – Starter served

7:25 – 8:00 p.m. – Entrée, Dessert and Coffee

8:10 p.m. - Part II: Tracey D. Syphax, President & COO of Phax Group Construction & Design LLC, Senior Managing Partner with Phax Group Real Estate LLC owning & managing multiple properties throughout Mercer County. Syphax is a Partner in Reentry Ventures an online entrepreneurial training course for the formerly incarcerated, a joint venture between From the Block to the Boardroom LLC. and Open For Business Ventures LLC.

8:15 p.m. - Rev. Joanne Epply-Schmidt, Associate Priest, Storyteller, including schools of special education, adult prisons, and the juvenile justice system. Rev. Epply-Schmidt will moderate a Q & A session between honored guests and dinner guests.

8:30 – 8:40 p.m. – program ends

Sit, relax, and break bread with folks from your community. Conversation is encouraged! Our meals are offered as “donate what you can” on the third Friday of the month, ten months per year. All net proceeds this year will benefit the Trinity Church Hunger Fund whose beneficiaries are Mercer Street Friends, Trenton Area Soup Kitchen, Bread for the World and Episcopal Relief & Development.

One Table Café is a community-supported restaurant where all are welcome regardless of race, gender, country of origin, religion, sexual orientation or ability to pay. An all-volunteer staff serves dinner and dress is casual. Children are welcome.

Please RSVP by November 15, 2017

Call (609) 216- 7770

Reservations are required

Next One Table Café dinner

January 19, 2018

One Table Café

Trinity Church Princeton

33 Mercer Street, Princeton, NJ 08540